Rugeley recognises that strong leadership, commitment and teamwork are an essential part of a positive health and safety culture. As such, all personnel on the Rugeley site are expected to accept their responsibility to work safely, adhering to safety rules and procedures and contribute positively to the safe and successful performance of the site. Rugeley are committed to:

- a) Ensuring roles, responsibilities and accountabilities are appropriately discharged through the defined organisation structure, specified responsibilities and the provision of adequate resources
- b) Preventing injury and ill health by identifying, assessing and controlling health and safety risks from activities arising in the course of our operation
- c) Compliance with identified legal and other requirements, including industry standards and best practice, to prevent or minimise risk
- d) Continual improvement of the health and safety management System and performance through the setting of measurable objectives and programmes at relevant levels and functions of the organisation from the Rugeley Business Plan to the individual
- e) Ensuring personnel acting for or on behalf of the company are competent to fulfil their duties to all relevant standards
- f) Co-operation and co-ordination with relevant stakeholders, including employees, contractors and enforcing authorities etc through effective consultation, participation and communication
- g) Evaluating compliance with identified legal and other requirements through pro-active and re-active monitoring and measuring activities and achieving and maintaining 3rd Party certification of the health and safety management system
- h) Reviewing the effectiveness and suitability of this Policy and the broader health and safety management system as part of the Management Review process
